SUMMER AT YOUR LIBRARY KICKOFF PARTY!

Fri, July 9 • 2:30pm • 1313 Washington Blvd

We've missed you all! So come and join us for our grand re-opening! Celebrate the start of an amazing summer filled with reading adventures, fun activities, and exciting programs for all ages. Enjoy games, crafts, and refreshments as we launch into a season of learning and fun. Don't miss out on the festivities—see you at the library!

SUMMER @ YOUR LIBRARY EVENTS

July

KICKSTART YOUR IMAGINATION

July 9 | 2:30 pm

Every day people find new ways to reuse old things. How big is your imagination? What can you build or make with cardboard?

LET IT GROW!

July 23 | 2:30 pm

Why are plants important? What impacts do they have on the world around us? Join us to learn about plants and nature.

August

ANIMAL ADVENTURES

August 6 | 2:30 pm

Where do ducks live? How about giraffes? Let's explore animal habitats, just remember to watch out for the skunks!

LET'S GET BUGGY!!

July 16 | 2:30 pm

Let's learn how different bugs help our environment. Wear comfortable shoes for a nature walk (weather permitting).

FLOAT LIKE A BUTTERFLY

July 30 | 2:30 pm

Today we combine the science of water and one of our favorite insects, the butterfly! Will our objects (not butterflies) float or sink?

SUMMER SPLASH

August 16 | 2:30 pm

Enjoy the end of summer with a splash party right here at your library! Also bring a book to swap with a friend in our library book swap!
